

Errata for Washington County Judicial Ditch #2 Repair Report, October 29, 2004

This lists known errors in the Judicial Ditch 2 Repair Report, by Rice Creek Watershed District (November 5, 2004).

The reference to 'unregulated' wetland made on pages 27 and 37, and Appendix G.
The use of the term 'unregulated' in reference to wetland impacts refers to the potential wetland impacts that would be exempt from replacement according to the Minnesota Wetlands Conservation Act and should more accurately be termed 'exempt.'

The reference to 'regulated' wetland made on pages 21, 22, 27, 36, and 37.
The use of the term 'regulated' in reference to wetland impacts refers to the potential wetland impacts that would not be exempt from replacement according to the Minnesota Wetlands Conservation Act and should more accurately

The reference to Type 8 wetland classification in Tables 4, 7, 11, and 12 and Appendix A Existing Conditions Map 1 of 3. The vegetation cover underlying this wetland classification is rich fen and Type 8 should be reclassified as Type 2 wetland.

The reference to 'Drained Type 3, 4, 5 wetlands' in the Legend of Appendix A Traditional Repair and Stable Stream Rehabilitation, Map 2 of 3 and Map 3 of 3. The drained wetlands shown refers to all wetland types and should read 'Drained wetlands.'

The use of the terminology 'Total Suspended Sediment' in Appendix D, page 6. 'Total Suspended Sediment' should read 'Total Suspended Solids.'